

Beverley Sheldrick's elegant choice of silk ribbon stitches, rendered on dresses, bonnets and booties gives you the ultimate way to embellish your baby's finery. The satisfaction of making these gorgeous silk baby clothes is intensified as soon as you slip them on a lucky little one in your family. Cherished memories of seeing baby all dressed up will last through generations when these heirloom-quality pieces are carefully tucked away for future generations. These are clothes for portraits, christenings, coming home from the hospital, dedications or simply wearing. Each pattern is provided in a variety of sizes from Premie to 24 months, so you can create delicate silk creations for new babies up to children who are wearing toddler sizes.
