

Sunkissed

This is a pattern with loads of options. It started out as a simple little sundress. But it grew into a romper and then a romper with a "float". The float became a sun top and the bottom of the romper turned into a diaper cover. Turn the sundress into a pinafore or jumper with the addition of a T-shirt or sweater to take it into a year-long garment.

The pattern includes easy smocking designs and can be made in a variety of fabrics. Mix and match prints and solids for unique results. Make it your own and let your imagination run free!

Size	3 mo/11 lb	6 mo/14 lb	12 mo/20 lb	18 mo/26 lb	24 mo/32 lb
Chest measure	17"	18"	19"	20"	21"
Height	24"	26 ¾"	29 ¾"	32 ¼"	35"

Yardage - All Sizes (includes bias strips)	45"/115cm	60"/150cm
Dress only	1½ yd/1.4m	1⅓ yd/1.25m
Sun Top only	7/8yd 0.8m	3/4yd/0.7m
Float only	1 1/8yd 1m	1yd/0.9m
Romper only, no Float	1½ yd/1.4m	1⅓ yd/1.2m
Romper only for contrasting Float	1⅓ yd/1.25m	1yd/0.9m
Diaper Cover	1yd/0.9m	⅔ yd/0.6m

Suggested Fabrics: Cotton and cotton blends in batiste, broadcloth, seersucker, light-weight cotton cord, chambray, etc. Be sure to test that you can pass double thickness of fabric chosen through your pleater before beginning!

Additional Supplies: Tissue paper and pencil for tracing out pattern pieces; small piece of quilters' template or Bristol board; 18" ruler; thread to match fabric(s); pleater and thread for gathering; pins; scissors; small safety pin for turning ties; sewing machine; embroidery floss and needles for smocking.

¼" elastic for Romper legs and Diaper Cover waist.

Optional: 3 Buttons, snaps, hooks & eyes, or Velcro® for crotch closure.

Sundress

Romper

Romper with Float

Sun Top

Diaper Cover

Sunkissed

designed by Judith Marquis © 2017

www.amberlane.ca

marquisjudith@gmail.com